

Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. I'm sure everyone who spent the weekend with us at L2L convention is a little tired this morning, but we are so grateful for such a wonderful weekend with so many other Christians. It's really encouraging to look around at a sea of people with the common goal of growing spiritually. Our kids did an amazing job this weekend and we are so excited to recognize them for their efforts at our annual sandwich supper in two weeks. We are looking forward to a great summer ahead and will be having a devo and parents' meeting this month to discuss all those plans. We hope to have the summer calendar out before the end of April to help you make summer plans. We hope everyone has a Happy Easter and a great week ahead!

DOUG

"Greet one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ greet you." Romans 16:16

Remember that God loves you no matter what happens in your life.

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again for coming.

“HE DID NOTHING ABOUT IT”

Several years ago I began to study the Bible with a man. He was a very kind man; polite and nice. He would get up very early to read his Bible and I was impressed, thinking this man will become a dedicated, zealous Christian, but I was dead wrong. We studied together for several months and not once during that time did he ever come to worship at the church building or come close to obeying the gospel.

When King Herod arrested John the Baptizer, he knew that John was a righteous and holy man, and he kept him safe. And when he heard him, he was perplexed/doubted, and used to enjoy listening to him (Mark 6:20). He enjoyed listening to John, but he did nothing about it! Some hearers are like Herod, they enjoy listening, but they do nothing about their lost condition. Some Christians also enjoy listening to Bible lessons, but they also do nothing about it. “But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves” James 1:22 DAN

Great to be back in worship this morning. We are glad you have come.

From Dan's desk:

It is great to be back in Bible class and worship this morning following a bout with Covid. Audrey and I both had it for a little over a week. We are so grateful to those who filled in while we were sick. My thanks to Ben Rhone, David Sparks, Dwight Franklin and Kyle Lock. Their efforts were greatly appreciated. The young people went to the Lads To Leaders convention over the weekend and we hear good reports. We are proud of all the hard work that has been done by the youth along with their parents and Doug and Alison. It is always wonderful when our youth can mingle and be in fellowship with young Christians from other places who share the great core values that we all espouse. Thanks to the chaperones who went along on the trip. We will have a fellowship soon to honor them on their accomplishments. We have some great young people. This is the middle weekend of the Annual Dogwood Trails Festival in Palestine and we welcome any visitors who are in the assembly today. We hope you enjoy our city and the services today. My lesson tonight is entitled "The Seven Dwarfs Go To Church" Plan to be here at 6 P.M. DAN

"Symptom's"

Fever is a symptom of a disorder somewhere in the body. The primary problem may be a hidden infection that would not otherwise be noticeable until it is in an advanced stage. High body temperature tells us something is wrong in the body, somewhere. It tells us a reliable cure needs to be found and applied. Unnecessary absence from worship and Bible study is a fever-like symptom. Mere absence, however, is not the only factor for diagnosing spiritual illness. There are times when it may be necessary to be absent from worship and Bible study. On the other hand, habitual absence is a spiritual malady that needs to be cured. As a fever may possess a man who does not know what causes it, even so a Christian can neglect worship without being aware of the problems that cause one to do so. We can easily camouflage our lack of concern for worship by involving ourselves in personal interests. This is easy to do when other interests seem to be more important than they really are. Select wisely the things that are important in life (Mt. 6:33)..We should recognize the difference SELECTED

"NEVER GIVE UP"

Galatians 6:9-10 says, "And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith." The hard part of doing good is the reality that most of us have been "burned" by someone we have helped. What I mean is that we went out of our way to help someone in need and ended up being offended by their ungratefulness, lack of self-discipline, or rudeness. If you are like me, your emotions can get the best of you, and in the mist of the situation, you declare, "I'll never do this again!" The experience did not live up to our expectations, so we simply avoid doing anything like it again. Paul's exhortation is important for all of us. Additionally he says we will reap, if we do not give up. Let's remember that we should be on the look out for opportunities to do good. Paul's words here should not be taken lightly, because there is a promise here in the scripture: for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. If you are on the edge of giving up, remember Philippians 1:6, "And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. DAN
