Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. Thank you so much to all the parents who stayed for our meeting last Sunday evening. We appreciate your feedback and are looking forward to a great summer. We want to give special appreciation to Brandon and Holly Franklin for cooking the burgers. They were delicious! If you are not currently joining us for Bible class, we would love for you to do so. On Sunday mornings we are doing Bible marking and creating chain references as resources for our personal study as well as for studies with friends and on Wednesday we are going through the book of Genesis. We get so much out of studying together! We hope everyone has a great week!

Is It Possible To Pass It On?

Is it possible to pass to others our love of God? Of course it is! It cannot be passed as a dish of mashed potatoes but it can be passed. We see every day a parent, teacher or mentor passing on a love of sports, or of automobiles. We pass on our love of honor, justice, and truth. We pass to others our love of country, and respect for those who defend it. The more a topic means to us is shown by the enthusiasm we have and the effect it has on our lives. Young people see that, and often in the beginning their interest is solely a result of ours. Yet as time passes they begin to see the beauty themselves, and they believe in the topic based on their own understanding. Have you passed on your love of this country? Do your children, grandchildren, or neighborhood kids love to play ball with you because you love it? Have you passed on a love of sewing and cooking? Have you passed on your love of fishing, hunting, and the outdoors? Do You Love God? Help us to pass that love of God on to the boys and girls who attend our Bible classes.

Graduating seniors to be honored on Sunday May 19th.

From Dan's desk:

We were saddened last week by the death of our beloved SUE GRUBBS. Sue passed away last week and we held the memorial service here at the building last Sunday. She was a very dedicated and devoted Christian. We have all missed her. We are so blessed to have Jeanette Alford and Jill Camp who always provide meals for the families of those pass away. They do an excellent job and what they do is a lot of work to pull something like this together. We want them to know just how much we appreciate their efforts. They are truly a blessing to our church family. We always have other ladies who step up to help and we are grateful for them as well. Elsewhere in the bulletin, you will notice that we have 5 graduating seniors this year. This is the most we have had in sometime. We are proud of them and their achievements. They will be honored at a luncheon for the them and the church on May 19th. We hope you will be here to show your support for them. We thank you for coming today and for those who might be visiting, we hope you feel welcome. It is great to have you with us. Hope to see you tonight.

REPENTANCE IS NEEDED

When we hear the Gospel, we learn early on that we have violated God's Word (1 Jn. 3:4). We have all done our own thing; we have all fulfilled the desires of our flesh and our mind. We have all taken matters into our own hands, lived the way we wanted to, and as a result, we have separated ourselves from God (Isaiah 59:1-2). The Gospel declares to us that the just payment for our sin is death, but also that God offers a gift, eternal life (Rom. 6:23). To receive this gift, we must repent. The repentant heart declares to God not only "I am sorry for my former manner of life" but also "I want to change from following my own way and begin following Your way." Notice David's penitent heart in Psalm 38:18, "for I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin." Our repentance is what brings about the change in our thinking that allows transformation to take place. As Christians, we no longer live unto ourselves, but unto our Lord who died for us and rose again (2 Cor. 5:15). Repentance is where we determine that the way we lived prior to becoming a Christian was wrong and that we will no longer follow a lifestyle that leads to eternal damnation (Rom. 6:23). It cannot be denied that it takes great humility to say "Father I have sinned. I am sorry for the way I have lived. I want to change my life and live for you." It is no easy task to deny self, glorify God and keep His commandments (Eccl. 12:13). The truth of the matter is God cannot help people who think they are all right. He cannot transform those who think they need no change. Consider the parable of the Pharisee and tax collector in Luke 18:9-14. May God help us to become repentant.
