

Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. It's hard to believe that summer break is winding down and a new school year is on the horizon. Alison and I have truly enjoyed this summer with all of you!

Our trip to Central Texas Children's Home was wonderful! We worked hard on a number of projects and really enjoyed spending time with the young people who reside at the home. It was so nice to see the way the home operates and to know that our congregation is supporting such a worthwhile cause in God's kingdom. We enjoyed our outing to Henderson for the last installment of Summer Youth Series for 2023. We were uplifted by the singing and challenged by the lesson! Since it was the last SYS for 2023, our group enjoyed a meal at Tia Juanita's following SYS. We appreciate Brook driving the bus so the kids could enjoy fellowship with one another. We have our annual Back to School Bash scheduled for Saturday evening! Check out GroupMe or the youth group Facebook page for more details. Have a great week! DOUG

“HAPPINESS GOES LIKE THIS....”

If we are going to be happy, we are going to have to learn from God how to be happy (Psalm 143:10). God teaches through His word that, if we are going to be happy, we have to learn to appreciate every day (Psalm 118:24), we have to trust Him with all of our heart (Proverbs 16:20) and we have to relish the Scriptures (Psalm 19:8). But it is not enough to learn how to be happy, we must also understand the foundation for true happiness. Consider this truth in Psalms 11:3, "If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?" If the foundation of happiness is destroyed, there will be no happiness. Physically speaking, the foundation is of great importance in anything you desire to build. This principle is even more significant spiritually speaking (Matthew 7:24-27). Happiness is founded upon God's presence. Happiness is not founded upon our earthly accomplishments (Ecclesiastes 1:14); it is ultimately measured by our relationship with God.

DAN

Thanks for joining us in worship today. We are glad you are here.

From Dan's desk:

“WHY DO WE COME?”

Among the several very good reasons we come together on Sunday is the opportunity to participate in the Lord's Supper. We learn from Acts 20:7 that it is one of the main reasons the original Christians met on Sundays. Furthermore, the apostle instructs us to participate in this memorial in a reverent manner, considering what it represents for Christians (1 Cor. 11:27-29). The Lord's Supper is a memorial. It is a key part of our worship to God, a reminder to commemorate Christ's love for us — it reminds us that He gladly substituted His life for ours (Phil. 2:7-8, John 10:17-18), and in this memory we should be motivated to offer better service in His kingdom. The reason we "bother" to remember our Savior's death each week is because of our love for Him and His sacrifice. See you at the 6 P.M. Service tonight. Take advantage of every opportunity to honor God.

“Bring Glory To His Name”

“Emmanuel” means “God with us.” Based on the promise of Hebrews 13:5, “I will never leave thee nor forsake thee,” we can say, “God is with us.” The language of Matthew 1:21, which quotes from Isaiah 7:14 in the Old Testament, has a much stronger meaning. The language means that “this child born to Mary is God.” This harmonizes with the statement of I Timothy 3:16, “God was manifest in the flesh...” Jesus, the Son, is also identified as God in Hebrews 1:8. “But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.” We can say based on plain Bible statements, “Jesus is God with us.” The title “Lord” means “Master,” the one in command over us. The Philippian jailer asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” Paul's answer included the titles “Lord,” “Christ,” and the name “Jesus.” “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house” (Acts 16:30-31). “Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12). Jesus our Savior has the right family history, He was born at just the right time, in the right town, and he has the right name for his character and mission. He is worthy of our love and praise. Let us honor His name.
