Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. We had such a great time carving pumpkins last Sunday night and enjoying our Halloween party last night. The fall is always such a fun time of year! Today we have a group planning to go to Great Harvest Farm and spend some time later this afternoon. Last year when we went it was a beautiful day and this year looks to be the same. We are also looking forward to Trunk or Treat on Wednesday and hope you can join us! It's hard to believe November is almost here. Be on the lookout for the November calendar later this week. If you are not attending Bible classes on Sunday and Wednesdays we hope you will start! On Sunday mornings we are doing a Bible marking study on the unique qualities of the church and what sets us apart from the religious world. On Wednesday nights we are doing a verse by verse study of Genesis, which is also our L2L topic for this year. Hope everyone has a great week!

One More Night with the Frogs

In the book of Exodus we find the great account of the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage. God's power is seen over and over again through the plagues which were sent against Egypt. The plagues were designed to display the power of God and draw man into submission to His power.

Today we are blessed to have all of this recorded so that we can also realize the power of Almighty God, and be drawn to Him.

One of these plagues brought an interesting response from Pharaoh, which reveals a lot about how "bad soil" reacts to the power of God. When the frogs were sent upon Egypt, and Pharaoh was desperate to rid his land of this great travesty, he called Moses and said he would let the children of Israel go if the frogs would leave (Ex. 8:8). Pharaoh begged Moses to entreat the Lord to remove the frogs. Moses asked Pharaoh "when shall I entreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?" (Ex. 8:9). The response from Pharaoh was rather interesting. We read in verse 10, "and he said, Tomorrow." What an incredible response. If Pharaoh truly understood the situation would he have waited until tomorrow? Maybe he was hoping the frogs would go away by themselves and then he wouldn't have to let the children of Israel go after all. Or, maybe he was hoping that his "magicians" would be able to come up with some solution before daybreak so he could keep his slaves. Whatever the reason, Pharaoh chose "one more night with the frogs," and therefore allowed time for his heart to harden.

THREE RESPOND

Trunk and Treat this Wednesday after class. Plan to join us as we share treats the young children.

From Dan's desk:

We welcome into our fellowship JODY and TINA MORTON, who placed membership with the Crockett Rd. Church family last Sunday. They are a fine couple and we are so happy about their decision. BILLY ROSE also came forward asking for the prayers of the Lord's church. We commend him on this decision. Please be reminded that we will have Trunk and Treat for the children in the church this Wednesday night following the Bible class hour. You are asked to bring candy and open your trunk to the kids for the candy you brought. It is always a fun time and we hope you will participate in this event. We are happy to have all of you this morning. If you are a visitor, we are truly glad you have chosen this House of worship today. We hope and pray that you will leave blessed and that you will come again real soon. You will notice elsewhere in the church bulletin that we are having our annual Christmas dinner for the church on Tuesday evening December 3rd. It is always a joyous time for the congregation here and we hope you will mark the day on your calendar. We just wanted to give you the date so you can make your plans accordingly. The beautiful Fall temperatures we had recently, have shifted again to warmer days. It won't be long until cooler weather will arrive. It is always great to experience the change of seasons. Don't forget to move your clock back one hour this Saturday night, as we go on Central Daylight time again. Hope to see you tonight. DAN

Little Johnny's father said, "Let me see your report card."

Johnny replied, "I don't have it."

"Why not?" His father asked.

"My friend just borrowed it. He wants to scare his parents."

Teachers never give up, and neither does Little Johnny. She asks him, "Can you name the Great Lakes?"

You know Johnny, he is always fast with an answer, and he pipes up with, "I don't need to. They've already been named."

A child comes home from his first day at school. His Mother asks, "Well, what did you learn today?"

The kid replies, "Not enough. They want me to come back tomorrow."
