

Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. We have had so much fun in this past week enjoying the fall season. We really enjoyed the evening of pumpkin carving last Sunday evening. It's always so much fun seeing the creativity from everyone! Last night's Halloween party was such a great time. The costumes were lots of fun and some of the creepy food contest made for some interesting things to eat. We are looking forward to a great evening of Trunk or Treat tonight following services. Hope you will join us!

Monday Night For The Master Tomorrow Night
Plan To Be Here.
"Trunk and Treat Tonight"

From Dan's desk:

The Monday Night For The Master program will again be taking place tomorrow night, among the events we have scheduled for the year. If you have not been attending, please plan to join us for a wonderful activity of fellowship, work and good pizza and salad. We always get a lot done with everyone working together. Please remember we will have "Trunk and Treat" tonight after the evening worship service. It is always a fun experience and the children always enjoy getting candy from those of us in the church. Due to the rainy cold weather predicted for this evening, we are moving the candy distribution to the activity building. Thanks for helping us make this transition. The month of October is just about gone. The month of November promises several activities as well. The youth are involved in many activities this coming month. The Thanksgiving holidays are quickly approaching. That means that Christmas and the New Year are on the horizon. Time is marching on. Thanks each of you for coming today. We hope you will take advantage of the service tonight at 6p.m. and be with us for another time of worship.

SYMPATHY

Our sympathy is extended to Dianne Wilcher and family in the death of Gerald last week. His funeral service will be held at Rhone Funeral Home this Tuesday morning at 10 A.M.

"Bring Glory To His Name"

"Emmanuel" means "God with us." Based on the promise of Hebrews 13:5, "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee," we can say, "God is with us." The language of Matthew 1:21, which quotes from Isaiah 7:14 in the Old Testament, has a much stronger meaning. The language means that "this child born to Mary is God." This harmonizes with the statement of I Timothy 3:16, "God was manifest in the flesh..." Jesus, the Son, is also identified as God in Hebrews 1:8. "But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom." We can say based on plain Bible statements, "Jesus is God with us." The title "Lord" means "Master," the one in command over us. The Philippian jailer asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" Paul's answer included the titles "Lord," "Christ," and the name "Jesus." "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house" (Acts 16:30-31). "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Jesus our Savior has the right family history, He was born at just the right time, in the right town, and he has the right name for his character and mission. He is worthy of our love and praise. Let us honor His name.
