

Teen News

Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. Today is our single and single again Thanksgiving luncheon and our youth group will be serving. We had a lot of fun decorating this morning during Bible class and if you are able to stay and serve that would be great! Thanks to Jill Camp for preparing the dressing this year and for all the youth and parents who helped prepare food. This week we will not be having Wednesday night Bible class but we do hope you will all be present on Tuesday night for our Thanksgiving devotional. It's always an uplifting time!

Have a great week! DOUG

"I will praise the name of God with a song, And will magnify Him with thanksgiving." Psa. 69:30

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts."

In 1621, the Plymouth colonists and Wampanoag Indians shared an autumn harvest feast that is acknowledged today as one of the first Thanksgiving celebrations in the colonies. For more than two centuries, days of thanksgiving were celebrated by individual colonies and states. It wasn't until 1863, in the midst of the Civil War, that President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national Thanksgiving Day to be held each November. Let us offer thanks EVERY DAY!

The Church Christmas Dinner is a week from Tuesday night.
Please sign the list on Bulletin board.

From Dan's desk:

Thanksgiving this Thursday.
Midweek service this Tues. night
Instead of Wednesday night
Please make a note of this change for one week only.

Thanks for being here today. We are happy about the baptism of BILL MENARD who was baptized following a study with me and Kyle Lock last Monday. We rejoice with him. If you have not signed up for the Christmas dinner, please do so today or by next Sunday. This is always a fun time and those who come are always blessed by the delicious food and program. The youth will present the story of NOAH. Remember also that the "Single and Single Again" luncheon will be held today following services for those who are single or single again. The youth along with Alison and Doug do a great job in coordinating this effort. Thanks for coming this morning and we hope you will be present tonight at 6 P.M. for the evening worship service. DAN

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES

TO KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS

DOUG LOWE is recovering from a heart valve surgery this last Wednesday.

ROSANNA MAY is improving following an issue with kidney stones.

All others who have recently been hospitalized are doing better, for which we are grateful.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS FELLOWSHIP

The Annual Christmas fellowship dinner will be held this year on Tuesday night, Dec. 3rd. The event will be catered and you will need to sign the list in the foyer. A great menu is planned. Please sign up by Sunday night week and indicate if you are planning to attend. The Children's Bible Hour will present their program on "NOAH".

THE HEART OF THANKS- GIVING

The real test of thankfulness is whether we can give thanks from the heart for what we do have, despite the wounds and pains of yesterday's struggles. Ours is not some fair-weather faith, but a resilient trust in the midst of pain. The Pilgrims lived close to the edge of survival. Perhaps that is why they were so thankful. How about you? Does your material bounty cause you to neglect thanks? When your clan gathers this Thanksgiving will there be a prayer of thankfulness forgotten between moist turkey and pumpkin pie? Will your children see you bow your head to give thanks, or merely ask for another helping of dressing and cranberry sauce? Children are watching, you know. And their little faith is being formed by what they see. Your family's Thanksgiving celebration is an instruction to them about thankfulness, for good or ill. Do they see you too wealthy to be thankful? Too independent to need God any more? Too bitter, perhaps? Or do they watch you truly give thanks for God's blessings on this special day I Thess. 5:18
