Be looking for details on departure time, etc. on the youth group FB page and GroupMe. Hope everyone has a merry Christmas! DOUG

Merry Christmas to you all.
We hope and pray for your safety as you travel.

From Dan's desk:

Christmas 2024 takes place this week. Many of you will be traveling to be with family. We hope each of you will stay safe and that you will enjoy your time together over the holidays. In the midst of exchanging gifts, remember our Lord and all that He has done for us in the year 2024. Through the year 2024, God has blessed us with numerous responses to the invitation. Many have been baptized into Christ, numerous ones have placed membership with us and others have been restored and asked for the prayers of the church here. Your contributions to the Lord have been great and the blessings continue to abound. Always remember the less fortunate (those by chance not by choice). The spirit of giving has prevailed among us. We have lost several in death and we continue to miss them all. In spite of their departure from among us, several have been born physically (young babies) and spiritually (those born again of the water and Spirit) into the Kingdom of God. And for this this we are truly a people that appreciate these wonderful blessings of God. We hope that you have a wonderful holiday season. Please be reminded that on Sunday Dec. 29th following the evening worship, there will be a reception to honor James and Sandy Singleterry who will be moving to New Braunfels, close to their son. They have been so active and involved in the work of the church through the years. We will miss them but know that they will serve God wherever they are worshipping. Plan to be with us as we bid them farewell. We hope to see you at the evening worship service at 6 P.M. DAN

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT
If a tombstone is all that's left to remind the world we've been here, it's a grave mistake

Bibles that are falling apart usually belong to people who aren't.

Those who "cook up" stories often find themselves in "hot water".

God doesn't want shares of your life, He wants controlling interest.

Mobs seldom gather together to perform an act of charity.

BIBLE TRIVA

1. Which timber was used to build the ark and what sealant was used?
2. What was the age of Moses on his death?
3. Name Daniel's father.
4. Balaam was spoken to by what animal?
5. What is the name of the sea where Jesus harnessed the raging sea?
6. Name the cities specified in the book of Genesis.
7. Name the ruler of Judah afflicted with leprosy?
8. What was it that Jacob had to do in order to marry Rachel?
9. Name the disciple who was a tax collector.
10. After he fled for his life, which tree did Elijah sleep under?

(Answers in next week's bulletin)
